Thoroughly constructive for building and maintaining community spirit	5
Very well done! Most interesting	5
Fascinating, varied life through one guy	5
A very impressive and convincing performance. Most enjoyable	5
I enjoyed the production immensely. A welcome night out	5
Heart-warming monologue. Well done. A great evening out and most unusual	5
Absolutely fantastic!!!	5
Drama first class. Most enjoyable evening. Film superb	5
I thoroughly enjoyed the drama - very thought-provoking! The film made by the children was excellent	5
Edinburgh Festival material, excellently executed by clear, articulate actor	5
Very well done	5
Very enjoyable. Well executed	5
Excellent performance	5
Lovely use of very nice space!	4
Kinloss Church has brought the local community together for all different age groups up to age 93 years. Tonight was great to see all the work P7s put into, plus the retiring hall keeper	4
Very enjoyable thank you. Great acting by Mr Hall - I felt very nostalgic reminiscing my old local community hall - in tune and with lots of 'feeling'. I also enjoyed the history on the film. Thank you.	4
Excellent performance. Very true to life. Very moving and poignant. Thank you	4
A super evening. Well done	4
Well done	4
Very good	4
Well done	4
Excellent performance - but please check to see the age of the audience (language!)	4
Wonderful show. Ron was fabulous in the play. Loved watching the film about the history of the hall - the animations were really fun!	4
A really original local evening, nice to see all generations involved	4
Watching Bluebottles held my attention completely. I thought it was well written and very well acted. Kinloss Hall Tales left me amazed at what children can do nowadays	4
Actor was very good, a lot to remember. For me it was rather long. Film by children excellent	3
Great evening, actor brilliant (play a bit long)	3
Well delivered but prefer more uplifting or inspiring subject	2
Some of the vocabulary in the play and also the Santa outfit scene not suitable for children under 10. Play could have been done in less time. Film excellent, could have shown children interviewers.	Film:5 Play: 2
Thoroughly enjoyed. Well done! Hall and Church great

Rafford:
Lovely show, suitable for all ages. Well done	5
Congratulations on a superb evening. Both the play and the film were of the	5

highest standards
What a fantastic evening. A great way to bring all ages to the hall. Please come again	5
Very enjoyable! Interesting to hear all the Rafford tales. Well presented	5
A very good evening. Well presented	5
Excellent production - good to see and hear recollections of former times in the village	5
Excellent script, brilliantly portrayed. Very moving. Hall Tales very interesting and good to give the children a chance to get involved	5
Very enjoyable	5
Absolutely brilliant! What an amazing performance - excellent	5
I really enjoyed the performance, it was very moving	5
Every hall in Scotland - indeed the UK should have one!	5
Great show, moving funny and thought provoking	5
Well done Ruth, Tim and young people. Very powerful performance - every move evocative of its first run. Great to see Ron suffer for his Damart! Mr Hall - a man with a big heart but a fragile heart - excellent!	5
Very poignant show. Very sad. Great performance from Ron Emslie. Thoroughly enjoyed the film - great to hear the stories from the folk involved. Thanks - Great Show.	5
Very powerful performance. Possibly more important was a hall full of people. Fabulous evening and a great community project.	5
The play was superb. I really enjoyed the production. The hall memories were really interesting	5
A very enjoyable play completed by an interesting insight into the history of the hall	5
Excellent	5
Very entertaining. Thought provoking enjoyable evening	5
Excellent, I'm very glad we came. So easy not to make the effort!	5
Very intriguing - very realistic - interesting perspective - good acting. The audience's reactions were great	4
This is the first Right Lines production I've been not and would definitely attend another. Moved to tears on two occasions and laughed a lot	4
The play was excellent - we were entranced from start to finish. The film presentation was very professional too. All in all a great evening	4
Enjoyed my experience tonight. The Hall Tales was a funny film and very interesting - good night had by all	4
A very enjoyable evening. Congratulations to all involved	4
Better than any Saturday evening on TV	4
Fantastic, enthralled, intensely heart warming	4
Very good, sad, funny, every emotion. Amazing how interesting one person can be!	4
I enjoyed it all. The sound was good as well as the lighting	4
Brilliant, loved the drama - what a great film	4
Very enjoyable evening. Play very thought provoking. Film - very educational - learnt a few new things!	4
Great night!	4
Well done to everyone involved. I thoroughly enjoyed the play	4
Enjoyed the evening very much and very interesting listening to all the activities that went on in the hall at Rafford	4
We thoroughly enjoyed the Hall Keeper. Films reminiscent of OLD days in Rafford. Participants in film were to be admired!	4

Went on a bit too long! I didn't find it that funny (I am only 11). The acting was amazing though	4

Excellent - an entertaining and thought provoking insight into hall life. The film was just the right length and mix
A nostalgic night - I was at the Rafford Hall opening aged 14. A great night
I was going to say it beats television but that's not much of a complement! It was interesting and informative and a great precedent for community building/relations
It must be good - it kept me awake!
A first-class evening. Wonderful that so much pleasure can be got from nothing. Thank you
Well done. Different social evening
Very good
Alves Hall Tales feedback Thurs 21 March:	Stars
Absolutely brilliant performance by Ron Emslie and very well written. Had me laughing one minute and crying the next	5
I really enjoyed the performance by the hall keeper 'Watching Bluebottles'. There was happiness sadness, emotions and excellent right through by Ron Emslie. Well done Euan Martin and Dave Smith - a good night	5
Thoroughly enjoyed this how especially when go back in time and also the teenagers nowadays especially skateboard piece of the show.	5
The performance was brilliant, very realistic. The skateboarding performance was good, the sadness and facial expressions were brilliant. Ron's acting was brilliant	5
Excellent	4
Very moving, triggered many memories of hall life back in 50s & 60s in Sussex. Just a pity no happy ending for me! Sad. Magic! Very funny too	4
Very impressed at one person holding attention of whole hall so well	4
The story was very good. The Actor was just wonderful. Good performance all over. More practice on the skateboard - magic!	4
Very innovative and some thought-provoking ideas. Especially like the humour about the bowler - so true! It will be very interesting to see how Ron deals with being in a 'new' once-shiny hall at Dyke which replaced the traditional old one at Brodie!!	3.5
Thoroughly enjoyed performance. Found it very engaging and thought-provoking. First time in your lovely village hall. Ideal for a village hall as I felt very much part of what was happening
Craigellachie Hall Tales feedback Fri 22 March:
Sensitive, true sharing and provoking. A gem of a scrip, brilliantly placed and played - thank you. Interviews and animation valuable and fun for all	5
It was so good to attend the evening so varied and thought provoking. The drama was excellent and really helped remind us all of the special place our village hall is, reminding us of community and friendship. We look forward to events like this in the future	5
Thank you that was a really interesting thought-provoking performance. I would definitely support future performances	5
A really enjoyable evening. An excellent play	5
Excellent, funny and sad - a real feat of memory for one person, but you did not miss the other people!	5

A riveting and wonderful experience. Wouldn't have missed it. - left a deep and lasting impression	5
For a one-man act - very good	4
Don't have the opportunity to enjoy going to the theatre but this was a 'local gem'. The actor brought to life the character he was portraying and memories of sadness and joy. It would be great to see more of this theatre experience	4
It was a very unusual perspective and most enjoyable	4
Excellent	4
This is the second time I've seen the performance a few years ago the first time. I thoroughly enjoyed it again - well acted	4
Entertaining - all emotion covered. Good to see arts in the community	4
Portessie Hall Tales feedback Sat 23 March
Moray Hall Tales beautifully written and performed. Excellent setting in Portessie Hall. Good audience of 50+. Story reflected our heritage and daily experience and private life	5
I Hope productions like this continue despite the budget/funding cuts. Right Lines excellent as ever	5
Absolutely great. Riveting performance and good to be so close to the 'action' in the village hall setting. I hope we get more of these	5
A great performance. Well done! I'm glad I came	5
A thoroughly captivating performance. Absolutely brilliant. Thank you	5
Excellent performance. A very talented man. Thank you	5
Excellent!	5
Top marks for a brilliant performance from my husband and myself	5
Thoroughly enjoyable and true to life!	5
Great performance	5
Felt moved with the hall keeper. A thoughtful portrayal of everyday life. We were living his memories with him	5
Very good	5
Excellent performance	5
Great show from a brilliant performer	5
Powerful and riveting performance. Thank you	5
Excellent presentation - one of the best I've seen	5
Funny, sad, touching. A real treat	5
Very thought-provoking	5
Really good to see entertainment of such a high standard at a wee hall. More power to your elbow!	5
Very enjoyable, good performance	5
Outstanding performance. Well done	5
A wonderful performance	5

The play was excellent – poignant yet humorous – very well performed. It was good to meet old friends and see the photos of past activities associated with the hall. I'm even in one of the photos, and my grandfather is in another!	5
Very good	4
